

The Do Not Call Registry is one of the greatest ideas that have hit NJ in a while. Please don't take it away. Telemarketing is a joke. I would love to know how many people actually buy the product that they are selling. I have never. With two teenage girls in my house, my phone rings enough. I don't need anything else making it ring any more than that.